

Justification Report for Negative Summary A2B Parsippany– July 2024

1. Inconsistent Food Quality: Some reviewers experienced issues with food quality, such as overly spicy dishes and poorly prepared items, leading to dissatisfaction.
 - "The food was made excessively spicy, seemingly as a form of retaliation by the lady who took our order."
 - "Food was horrible. For some reason they used something which made it bitter and tasted horrible."
2. High Prices: A few customers found the pricing to be excessive, feeling that the value did not match the cost, especially for certain dishes.
 - "Pricing of dishes is atrociously expensive."
 - "The taste was good no doubt about that but the prices are high. I have been to places that are cheaper and taste the same or better."
3. Service Issues: Complaints included slow service or unresponsive staff in some cases, which affected the overall dining experience negatively.
 - "Improperly prepared food (not as requested), and customer service even worse (little-to-no interest in resolving the issue"
 - "Food quality has gone down to a level it's not worth visiting it anymore."
4. Inadequate Chutney Supply: A specific complaint mentioned the reluctance of staff to provide extra chutneys, which affected the enjoyment of the meal for some diners.
 - "The server made faces when we asked for more, we were 6 people and ordered more than 8 dishes, they were still hesitant to give us a few extra chutneys, it's annoying!"
5. Food Preparation Issues: There were mentions of food not being prepared as requested, which led to some disappointment among customers.
 - "Improperly prepared food (not as requested), and customer service even worse (little-to-no interest in resolving the issue)."
